Please describe your reason for applying for acceptance into the Registered Public-Safety Leader Program.

"In order to graduate from the program participants must complete a service project during the course of the program. The service project must benefit the Association and/or the industry at either the state, regional or national level. Examples of acceptable service projects are state or national Association committee work, participation in an APCO Institute course development workgroup, advocating for legislation that supports the role of public safety communications, 9-1-1 public education activities and other similar activities designed to benefit and enhance the role of public safety communications.

Please describe the service project you would undertake if accepted into the Registered Public-Safety Leader Program
