

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Effective communications is a critical component of law enforcement service operations. The telecommunicator provides the vital link between citizens and law enforcement responders.

APCO Institute's Law Enforcement Communications, 1st Edition course is a vital component in our training selection, by improving service to the caller and increasing safety of the responders. This dynamic course covers the terms, techniques and guidelines required for excellence in law enforcement call handling and radio dispatching.

Topics include:

- The Role of Law Enforcement
- History of Law Enforcement and Law Enforcement Communications
- Law Enforcement Organizations, Operations, Vehicles, and Equipment
- Classification and Prioritization of Crimes
- Law Enforcement Telecommunicator: Overview of Role and Responsibilities
- Law Enforcement Call Processing and Dispatch Procedures
- Law Enforcement Incidents: Crimes against Persons/Property/Vehicle and Highway
- Communications for Pursuits and Officer Needs Help Incidents
- Next Generation and Emerging Communications Technology
- Law Enforcement Communications and Counterterrorism
- NIMS (National Incident Management System)

The course manual contains numerous photographs and illustrations to bring the course material to life and serves as an excellent reference source once back on the job. Instructional resources include study guides (with audio and video clips), role-plays and scenario-based training materials.

APCO Institute certified instructors who successfully complete this course can upgrade their instructor certificate to teach this dynamic course in-house for the cost of the course books only!!

Instructional media and exercises used throughout the course reinforce the knowledge attained in lecture and demonstration. If taught by your own APCO Institute certified instructors, it becomes an economical way to train your staff at your own pace and introduce or review agency specific policies
