APCO COMMERCIAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

The ABC’s of the CAC
WHAT IS THE CAC?

The purpose of the Commercial Advisory Council is to:

• Provide guidance to APCO from our commercial perspective

• Increase corporate membership and secure new corporate sponsors

• Help spread the word to increase international participation

• Connect with local chapters and encourage their growth

• Promote commercial membership among our peers and non-member exhibitors every chance you get!
WHO IS THE CAC?

The CAC is composed of between 12 and 24 Commercial members of APCO who are movers and shakers in the industry.

We represent the diverse interests of the manufacturers, equipment suppliers, service providers and consultants in the public safety communications marketplace.
HOW DO I SELL THE CAC TO MY BOSS?

• Brand recognition

• Have your company’s voice heard by APCO leadership, provide input from your commercial member perspective

• Be the first to know local and national trade show exhibitor information

• Network with prospective customers

• Engage with potential partners in the industry
SO WHAT’S THE TIME COMMITMENT?

Service on the CAC is a 4-year term and each year nominations and elections are held to fill open positions. CAC members are now limited to two elected four-year terms.

4 years too long? Get your feet wet and learn what you can do as an Associate CAC Member with a 1 year term.

The CAC conducts its business through a series of monthly one hour conference call meetings.

We meet in-person twice during the year: Once at APCO HQ and a second time during the APCO Annual Conference.

All nominees will be notified of the recommended slate prior to the annual CAC meeting at the APCO Annual Conference taking place in Orlando, Florida, August 2-5, 2020.

Any nominees who have not been included on the slate of nominees, as well as any additional nominees, will be encouraged to present their nomination from the floor.

Nominations do not require a second and all nominees will be included in the final slate of nominees from which the current CAC membership will elect the new members.
