

Public Safety Communications as a Rewarding Career

There's never been a better time to step up to an exciting, service-based career in emergency communications. If you want to work with a dedicated team of professionals to serve your community, take a look at public safety communications as a fulfilling career. From practical skills in call taking and dispatching to leading a 9-1-1 communications center, APCO provides the training path that can help you reach the top.

Public Safety Telecommunicator

Answer and dispatch fire and law enforcement calls and perform life-saving emergency dispatch

- Fire
- Law Enforcement
- EMD

Communications Training Officer

Run an agency training program, or train the trainer

CAD

Technician

Plan, maintain, manage and secure technology

Radio

Communications Center Supervisor

Supervise and guide employees

Comm Center Manager/Director

Manage the day-to-day operations of a 9-1-1 center

Leadership Certifications

Become a better leader in your agency and the industry

- RPL
- CPE

If you are ...

- Compassionate and calm in a crisis.
- Interested in serving your community.

And you can ...

- Handle multiple tasks at once.
- Work well with a team of dedicated professionals.
- Learn to use emerging technologies.

There's a place for you in public safety communications!

Protecting Your Community, One Call at a Time

